

Robert P Abbott

BIOGRAPHY

Robert P. Abbott, B.S. Mathematics, U.C. Berkeley

Employment - in reverse order

Sygate Technologies, Inc. - Senior Scientist in the design and development of network security software

EDP Audit Controls, Inc. - President and founder – Security and audit reviews of IT systems. Clients included national and international businesses and governments (local, state, and federal)

Lawrence Livermore National Laboratory (LLNL) - Division Leader, Principal Investigator for The RISOS (RISOS) Project, the first funded research effort to investigate the nature of IT security. Funding by the Defense Advanced Research Project Agency

Director, Research Data Facility, Pacific Medical Center (San Francisco – applications of IT to medical research). Principal Investigator for various research grants from National Institute of Health (NIH), National Aeronautics and Space Agency, Bureau of Quality Assurance (DHEW).

Lawrence Livermore National Laboratory: - Scientific Programmer (weapons systems); Group Leader - Operating System Design

Appointments

- Special Research Resources Council, NIH (4 years) - Appointed by Secretary of Health & Human Services
- Advisory Board, Computer Security Institute
- Advisory Committees (3 years each): Chemical & Biological Information Handling, NIH; Computer Science, Mathematics & Engineering, National Science Foundation

Recipient: The Fitzgerald Award for lifetime and continuing contributions to the field of IT Security.